Reserve early! Reserve campsites one day to nine months in advance by calling 1-800-452-5687 or visiting www.oregonstateparks.org.

Detroit Lake's campground offers nearly 300 sites on the shore of a forest-ringed canyon reservoir in the Cascade Mountains. The nine-mile-long lake is a popular destination for fishing, boating, and other water sports. Sightseers enjoy views of snow-capped Mt. Jefferson in the distance.

Camping

Note: All campground loops are open from at least mid-May through mid-September. F Loop is open year-round. Most sites are reservable.

- 103 full-hookup sites (sewer, electricity, water)
- 68 electrical sites with water
- 96 tent sites with water nearby
- Paved parking, picnic tables, and fire ring at all sites
- Showers and flush toilets
- Swimming areas
- Firewood for sale

Universal Access

Eight campsites (C3, C14, C19, F24, F25, F29, G30 and H30) are accessible according to the Americans with Disabilities Act.

Camping Rates

Rates for state park campsites are subject to change. You can get up-to-date information by calling 1-800-551-6949 or visiting www.oregonstateparks.org.

Limited Parking

Campsites are limited to eight people and two vehicles to protect natural resources. Parking for one vehicle is included in the campsite rate; a second vehicle is subject to an extra vehicle fee per night. All vehicles must be parked on the pavement at the site or in a designated parking area. Once a site has two registered vehicles, no other vehicle can register to that site. Designated parking areas at Detroit are assigned and used only for boat trailers and second vehicles that cannot fit on site pavement. The park has no overflow parking.

Smoking in Oregon State Parks is allowed only in personal vehicles, RVs, campsites and portions of day use parks along state highways that are designated as safety rest areas by the Oregon Department of Transportation.

Need to cancel your reservation? Follow these guidelines: If your reservation is for today, call 503-854-3346. Otherwise, call 1-800-452-5687.

Other Park Features

The campground has horseshoe pits, a basketball court and a volleyball area; check out equipment from the registration booth. Loop A has a playground. A 2.7-mile hiking trail runs the perimeter of the campground.

Interpretive programs are offered mid-May through mid-September; schedules are posted at the visitor center and registration booth. Junior Ranger activities are offered daily in July and August.

The Detroit Lake Visitor Center has information on activities and services in the area. Purchase books, gifts, bagged ice, coffee and soft drinks in the gift store.

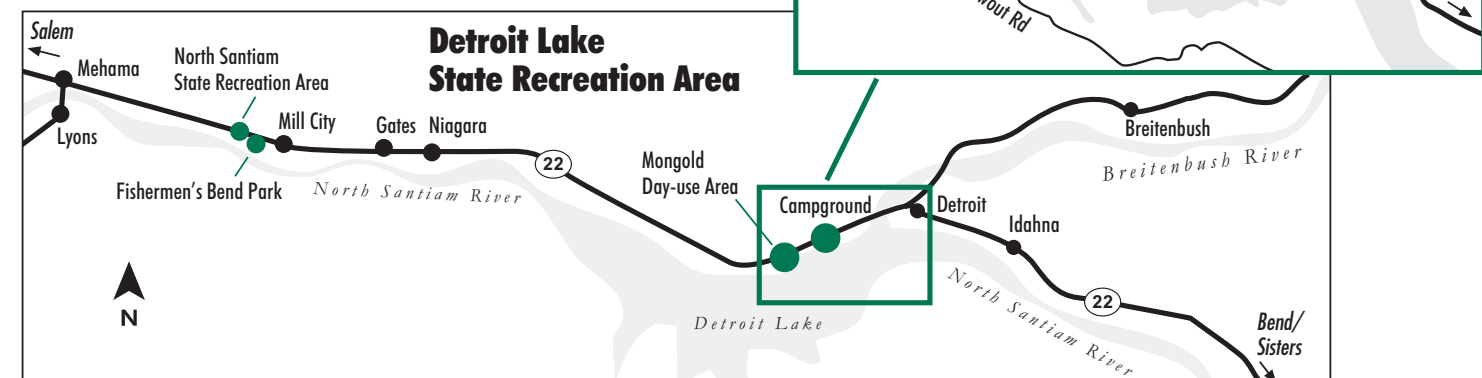

Mongold Day-use Area

Mongold Day-use Area is located 1.5 miles west of the campground on Oregon Highway 22. It offers year-round boating access, weather permitting. Facilities include:

- Large paved boat ramp with seasonal courtesy dock and low-water winter ramp
- Enclosed swim area with a grass "beach"
- Picnic area
- 83 single-car and 120 RV/trailer parking spaces

Overnight parking at Mongold is permitted if you are camping on Piety Island or on a shoreline accessible only by boat. A valid day-use parking permit is required for all days the vehicle is in the park.

Boating and Fishing

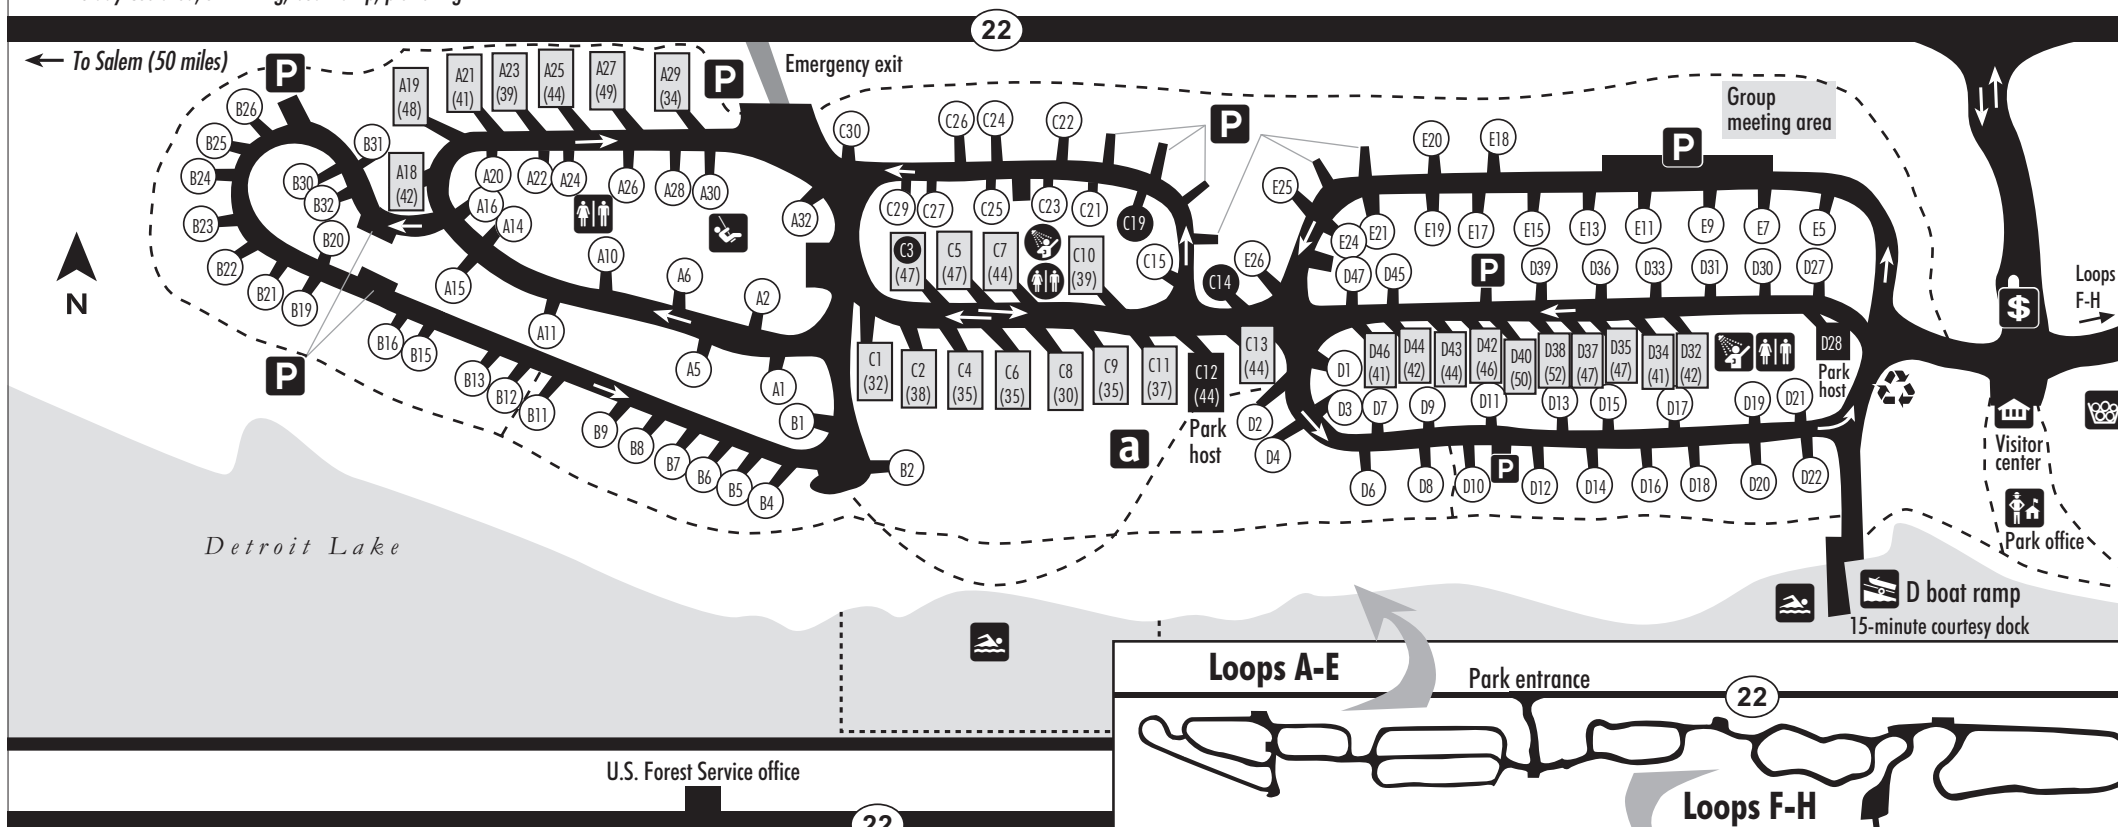

The park's fishing dock is accessible from the F loop area. Anglers can search out rainbow trout, catfish, kokanee (landlocked blueback salmon), and landlocked Chinook. Courtesy boat ramps are located in the D and G loops, with 15-minute time limits for loading and unloading passengers and gear. Boat trailer parking is available at the G loop ramp. Overnight boat moorages are available in the F and H loops and may be rented by registered campers. Please note the lake's water level changes with the seasons.

Day-use Parking

Day-use parking permits are required year-round in both the Mongold Day-use Area and the Detroit Lake campground. You will need to display either a daily permit, a 12- or 24-month permit, or a camping receipt. Your camping receipt serves as a daily permit for all of the days you are registered. Purchase daily permits at the entrance booth or from nearby vending machines. Annual permits are sold online at store.oregonstateparks.org and at major state park offices.
